

Deaconess Alyce Marie Gardner

February 14, 1926 - December 8, 2018

" I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them that love his appearing."

AYLCE MAXIE HOWARD was born February 14, 1926 to the Late Frank and Ethel Howard, in Richmond, Virginia. She entered into eternal life December 8, 2018.

Alyce joined Trinity Baptist Church at an early age and was baptized by the Late Rev. K.D. Turner. She became a member of the Deaconess Ministry. Later, she joined the Senior Fellowship Ministry, having served in many positions until her failing health.

She was educated in Richmond Public Schools and graduated from Maggie L. Walker High School. After graduating, she went to New York, where she worked for several departments stores, setting up display windows.

After moving to Richmond, she married the Late Deacon James Gardner. From this union, five children were born; four daughters and a son.

Deaconess Gardner was preceded in death by her husband and her daughter, Joyce Gardner. She leaves to cherish her memory, three daughters, Janice, Patrice Turner (Jerry), and Margaret Burno (Issac); son, James, Jr.; four grandchildren, Louis Woolfolk, Antonio Turner (Shokia), Shemesha and SHEME Trisk Burno; three great grandchildren, Autumn, Aiden, and Denim Turner; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Peacefully resting at last

The world's worry, troubles and trails have past;

In silence she suffered, in patience she bore

Till God called her home,

To suffer no more.
