

Annie L. Holloman

September 13, 1913 - November 17, 2019

Annie Lee Hollomon daughter of the late John Gaither Sr and Elizabeth Hall was born September 13, 1913 in Great Falls, South Carolina and gained her wings November 17, 2019.

She received her education in South Carolina and North Carolina Public School System. Ann moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the early 1950's where she married George Hollomon and with this union there were no children. All of her nieces and nephews were her children.

Ann was a very generous, and caring ,feisty but gentle woman who opened her home to everyone. She would say "If it's no room in the bed, I can make a pallet on the floor for you." She loved to cook and people came for miles to get a plate. She was famous for her fried chicken, collard greens and potato salad. Actually everything she cooked was finger licking good. Ann liked to watch the horses run at the local and neighboring racetracks, along with listening to the Birds (Orioles) on the radio while eating her pound cake and drinking her Pepsi cola. Most of all she loved her family and would do anything for them. If she had it, you had it.

She was preceded in death by her two brothers and sisters in law: John B Gaither (Hazel) and Ernest Gaither (Ruth).

Ann leaves to cherish her memory: niece, Ruth Gaither Stringfellow, nephews, Cornelius Gaither (Brenda), Joseph Gaither (Ann) and Francis Gibson (Cornelia): great nieces and nephews, Robert Stringfellow Jr. (Stephanie), Reginald Stringfellow, Ronetta Stringfellow Thomas, Rosalyn Stringfellow, Tracy Wood, Robert C Gaither, Shaun Gaither, Joann Vines-deceased (Ralph), Aiesha Gaither Huitt (JyRon), Christopher Cooper (Monique), Tammy Parker, Maurice Clinton, Gregory Gaither, 21 great-great nieces and nephews, 22 great-great-great nieces and nephews, 16 great-great-great-great-nieces and nephews, and a host of many family and friends.
