

Edith Mae Purvis

September 14, 1937 - March 8, 2020

Edith Mae Purvis was born in Darlington, South Carolina on September 14, 1937 to the late James and Elizabeth Purvis. She was the eighth of eleven children and raised in a home where strong Christian love and values were taught throughout her youth.

Edith, a loving sister, sister-in-law, aunt, great aunt, godmother and friend entered into rest on Sunday, March 8, 2020.

Edith, at an early age, accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized by Reverend Gibbs at Bethel AME Methodist Church in Darlington. As a very active member she served on various ministries, committees and programs.

Edith, attended Darlington Public Schools, graduating from May High School. She loved sports; basketball was her favorite. She played basketball throughout her high school years. In 1955, after graduating high school, Edith moved to Richmond, Virginia to be with her family. Seeking work, she later traveled to New York, Atlantic City, New Jersey and Baltimore, Maryland where she resided for several years. Years later, she returned to Richmond, Virginia and was employed in the dietary departments at Westbrook Hospital and The Virginia Home until retirement.

Edith, enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. They attended many social gatherings and special events. During pass time she loved playing cards, Pokeno, or reading one of many mystery novels from her private collection.

Edith, was preceded in death by her loving parents, brothers, James, Willie, and sisters, Joann, Josephine, and Rosebud. She leaves to cherish in her memories her sister, Carrie Davis, brothers, Roosevelt and Thomas Purvis, Tony and Kenneth Zimmerman, sistes-in-law, Benzinia, Betty, and Shirley, loving nieces, two devoted, Lynette and Cynthia Tedder, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, loving and supportive god-children Pearl and Lakeia White, Bryanna, Bryant, and Kayla Neisz, and a host of other relatives and friends.
