

Janice I. Henry

March 28, 1957 - July 3, 2019

Janice Irene Henry, daughter of Ezella Merritt and the late Timothy Merritt was born on March 28, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called her home suddenly on July 3, 2019. Janice grew up in East Baltimore and received her education through Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from Lake Clifton Senior High School. Shortly after high school, in 1975, she married the love of her life, the late Nehemiah L. Henry, Sr. and through their union they had four sons.

Janice was reared in a Christian household and devoted her life to Christ at an early age. She was spiritually filled by attending worship services at many community churches. However, she was a member of Charm City Ministries in South Baltimore. Janice had a winning sense of humor, was the life of the party and had a heart of Gold.

It is of no surprise that with a heart as big as Janice's, that she would devote her career to children and the elderly as a teacher's assistant and caregiver. She had a strong passion for family and helping others in need. She loved to cook, and everyone looked forward to her fried fish and potato salad. Janice enjoyed doing arts and crafts and was so excited to show off her finished projects. Watching reality TV and socializing with her neighbors was her favorite past-time. She was into beauty and fashion and loved to look her best. She made sure her girlfriends did too, by doing their hair and make-up before they went to enjoy good music and dancing.

But most of all, Janice enjoyed family gatherings; eating crabs, playing cards, talking smack, and living life. Her favorite holiday was Halloween, where she enjoyed dressing up, decorating and going trick or treating with her kids. Janice will be missed by many near and far and remembered for her Godly love.

She leaves to mourn: four sons, Nehemiah L. Henry, Jr. Kemo J. Henry Sr., Martin J. Henry and Andre J. Henry; one step-daughter, Nichole L. Allen; her mother, Ezella Merritt; one sister, Cynthia Merritt; one brother, Martin Merritt; twelve grandchildren, Myah Dakera, Tanais, Neah, Andrea, Destiny, Kemo Jr., Kemyah, Risheena, Richard, Maurice Jr., and Imani; two great-grandchildren, Autumn and Zethan; one daughter-in-law, Contrena Henry; one son-in-law, Maurice Allen Sr.; two sisters-in-law, Harriette Lowery and Mary Henry-Sewell, two brothers-in-law, Eric Lowery and Larry Sewell and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and many friends.
