“ My heart is broken from the tragic loss of my baby cousin, we wore itchy periwinkle blue flower girl dresses and grew up North (away) from most of the family, we argued like sisters, and giggled like children (yours was always the most infectious) at life up to a month ago. I never thought I would ever have to write this, I am at a loss. But my Shelly Belly I hope you knew you belonged, were loved, were unique and I hope you have found home. Thank you for the lessons you taught the family in your life and in your departure, I hope we have learned. We send your son light and love during these times, we send your mom the strength she will need to get through, Rest In Ever Lasting Peace! KW
