

Motriss Lewis

April 11, 1931 - December 2, 2019

Motriss Lewis was born on April 11, 1931, in Morne Diablo, Trinidad. She moved to Baltimore, Maryland with her family and children in the mid-1960s.

Motriss had a strong devotion to the Catholic Church. Her faith and devotion made her a loving, caring, generous mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Motriss selflessly spent her life providing for and caring for not only her family but also others as her professional occupation within the healthcare industry for over 30 years. Her sincere love, kindness, and genuine happiness could be felt in the heart of any conversation she held and permeated throughout any room she occupied.

Motriss Lewis peacefully departed this life on Monday, December 2, 2019.

Motriss was preceded in death by her mother, Mazine. Siblings, Thelma, Rose, Oliver and Kingsley. Children, Yvonne and Trevor. She is survived by her siblings Michael, Gloria, and Karrien. Her children, Lennox, Evangeline, Ronald, and Everal, and bountiful grandchildren and great-grandchildren, as well as, several cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family.
