

Reginald Jones

March 24, 1973 - December 18, 2019

Reginald "Malik" Jones Jr., 46, of Baltimore, Maryland, passed away peacefully, Wednesday, December 18, 2019 in his home.

Born March 24, 1973 to Shirley Mack-Boyd and the late Reginald "Mick" Jones Sr.

Reginald (Reggie) Jones Jr., also known as Snowball, attended Baltimore City Public Schools. A compassionate and determined young man, he was someone to reach out to for guidance. As he ventured through the highs and lows of life, he eventually became a manager for the Salvation Army where he mentored a variety of young and older men on how to conquer the many hills that are faced and to never be afraid to reach out for help when needed. Even when his role at the Salvation Army ended, his desire and drive to help others remained. He later met one of his greatest loves Lisa-Smith-Jones. Even with a separation further down the line, the two kept their deepest love for each other. Sometimes called "Father Abraham," Reggie was a family man and defender of those that held his heart.

Reggie is survived by his daughters, Tierra "Jones," Jernell Jordan, and Cierra Jones. By his sons, Jaille Jones, Jaylen Jones, Jonathan "Jon Jon" Jones and Eric Jenkins. His loving parents, Shirley Mack-Boyd and Robert Boyd. His sisters Angel Mack-Boyd and Melinda Boyd. His brothers Antoine Boyd, Robert Boyd Jr, and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews and Cousins. Reggie is predeceased by his son Khalil Malik Jones and his father Reginald "Mick" Jones Sr, grandparents Dorothy and Alfred Mack, grandmother Gertrude Jones and others held dear.
