

Ruth Elizabeth Freeman

August 1, 1933 - December 5, 2019

RUTH ELIZABETH FREEMAN, "Weasie," was called home on December 5, 2019 at the age of 86.

Weasie, the daughter of the late Willie and Teresa Freeman, was one of twelve children. Ten of which have long passed away, and a beloved niece Marie Neal, whom she held close to her heart as her own daughter.

Weasie was born in Baltimore City on August 1, 1933. She was raised as Catholic and attended St. Frances Academy. Weasie worked for many years at Sinai Hospital in healthcare until she retired in 1995.

Weasie's life revolved around her family. She enjoyed spending time with her kids, grands, great-grands and great-great-grandkids. She enjoyed playing cards and listening to music. Her favorite pastime was watching the judge shows and politics.

Weasie is lovingly remembered by: her daughters Cecelia, Catherine Ruth Natasha; her grandchildren, Natasha K. Lewis, Donta', Niesha, Jason, Kelly, Keith, Tavon and Kevin; her 25 great grandchildren, 6 great-great-grandchildren, two sons-in-law, Lonnie Morgan and Levan LaBoo.

“ To the family. I would like to share my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear love one. " When someone you love becomes a memory that memory becomes a treasure may that treasure fill your heart with love and bring you peace. " (Rev.21:4). My thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
