

Selvin Belnavis

April 9, 1952 - November 18, 2019

Selvin was born 04/09/62 in Birmingham, England to the late Ida Belnavis and Allan Belnavis. He is a father to 4 wonderful children, Sade, Timothy, Michelle and Sean. He is also a grandfather to Keyon, Symphony, Kaylee, Kameron, Tyrell and Kennedy all of whom he loves dearly.

Growing up Selvin was a pain in my ass (as most big brothers probably are). Can you believe I was the one who always had to defend him from bullies? I remember one incident when we were coming home from school and he was being chased up the hill by some kids. I was with my best friend outside and we heard them. So we took off our shoes and chased down the hill throwing our shoes at the kids. Funny how he ended up being the one to defend us all.

Even though he was a pain, I always knew that he had my back. If I needed him I knew he would be there. He wouldn't even grumble about it. He had his faults and who doesn't. He had a bad temper. I remember I did something to him as a kid and he chased me around – I swear I thought he was gonna kill me but I dodged that by running to my parent's room. In the end though we were brother and sister so of course he forgave me and we moved on.

I miss my brother, I miss knowing that he was there at the end of a phone line, I miss knowing that I could just call him up for no real reason but just to say hi. I miss not being able to tell him sorry for not answering his phone call that night. I just miss him
