

Steven B. McCready

October 4, 1954 - February 11, 2020

STEVEN BURNELL MCCREADY SR. beloved son of Delores D. McCready and the late Nathaniel Harrison, Was born on October 04, 1954 and transitioned from the earthly life on February 11, 2020.

"Steve", as he was affectionately called, excelled in the Baltimore City Public School System, then would enlist into the Marine Corps wherein, he honorably served and was honorably discharged. Steve would then broaden his horizons as he spent the next 30-plus years professionally driving Greyhound buses across the U.S Whether it be a friend, a niece, a nephew, coworker, a rider or even a stranger with whom Steve shared a story or two, a laugh, and/or a cynical comment (with a straight face) he was sure to leave a lasting impression and would certainly have the last word.

More than 35 years ago, Steve met and married his loving and devoted wife, Charlotte McCready; and they have shared many memories, many accomplished, many tears cried, many battles won and a legacy birthed. While there are many words which could describe Steve, these are simply a few: happy, supportive, family man, funny outspoken and OUTSPOKEN!! One of Steve's favorite pastime was playing cards with his mother on weekends.

Steve is preceded in death by three siblings-Anthony "Tony", Marcelle And Cinnette "Nita"

Steve is survived by: his loving wife, Charlotte McCready; devoted mother, Delores McCready, three sons, Steven Jr. (Amy) of Utah, Nicholas (LaToya) and Jason McCready of Baltimore; one sister Le'Mani, Lexington, Ni'Kayla, Nicolas Jr., My'Jay, Jaylah, Jaye; one great-granddaughter, Rai'Lee; one Niece, Raenell McCready; and a host of others relatives and friends.
