

Stuart Andrew Robert Johnson Jr.

April 9, 1978 - June 30, 2019

Stuart Andrew Robert Johnson, Jr., was born to Stuart A.R. Johnson, Sr. and Mentha Lee. Brandon, on April 9, 1978 in Baltimore, Maryland. Stuart departed this life on Sunday, June 30, 2019 while doing a job he loved, helping people.

Stuart, affectionately known as Stu/Boobie, attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated in the Class of 1996. As a boy, he was a huge fan of wrestling and football. He grew up in a loving home filled with love and support by family and friends. . Stuart also lost his older sister too soon in life, Tanika Johnson. Stu was a very warm, loving, caring and thoughtful individual. “Stu” or “Boobie”, no matter which name you used, was raised in church and never got into any trouble with the law. No matter what you needed, he was always there to lend a hand. He had no problem putting others before himself.

As a man, he was a dedicated hard working employee at the McCarthy Tire Company as a Service Technician. His colleagues held him in high regard. Although, this job could be dangerous, Stuart Robert Johnson Jr. gave his all to perform his duty and assist individuals in need. “Service to others” really defined Stu’s character.

Stuart was a family man. One lasting memory is: When “Boobie” was not working, you can find him playing cards, entertaining, and bonding with his family and friends. He was faithful to those he loved. It is fair to say, Stuart was a Baltimore Ravens fan. In as much as Stu gave to others, he had many admirers.

Stuart leaves to cherish his loving memory; his mother, Mentha Lee. Brandon; father and best friend, Stuart A.R. Johnson Sr.; three beautiful children, Amaris Johnson, Amarie London, and Aubrie Johnson; a loving fiancé, Nickey Johnson; sister, Nidra Williams, two nephews, William Rose Jr. and Terrell Parham; and a host of other family and friends.

“ I can remember my daughter Nikki, Stuart, Tierra, Dennis and their crew hanging out on the steps on Ashland ave. They were kids who grew up together. Now they are young men & women with careers and some with children of their own. Stuart was always a respectful gentleman who my daughter Nikki called him her big brother. Sending Prayers of peace and Condolences to the family & friends from The Wells family, Derick, Carolyn, Nikki & DJ
