

Aaron V. Harrison

September 11, 1962 - September 21, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

Mount Olivet

Previous Events

Visitation

SEP 29. 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM (ET)

St. Vincent Depaul Catholic Church
14 M Street SE
Washington, DC 20003

Service

SEP 29. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

St. Vincent Depaul Catholic Church
14 M Street SE
Washington, DC 20003

Tribute Wall

“ Aaron V. Harrison

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ Hey just sitting here thinking about you and your smile continue to rest in paradise my angel

Tenikki T Harrison - January 12, 2016 at 05:56 AM

“ Tunyalle lit a candle in memory of Aaron V. Harrison

Tunyalle - January 12, 2016 at 05:43 AM

“ My heart feel so heavy i remember when i first met you it was love at first sight from that day i never knew i was going to be your first and only wife i will always love and miss you so deeply no more pain nor suffering may god continue to allow you to rest in paradise and watch over your love ones Love Aaron 🙏

Tenikki T Harrison - October 11, 2015 at 10:40 PM

TU

“ I met Aaron 14 years ago , Arron was loving , caring and full of life. the ex of my cousin. Aaron always remained family to me. "Aaron" was one of my daughter's first words. He adored her..... May You Rest In Peace. Your kind words and laughter will always be remembered. Tunyalle&Family 🙏??

Tunyalle - October 01, 2015 at 09:26 PM

CB

“ I met AARon Harrison about seven years ago when my security company first transferred me to work at the Washington Convention Center. He was one of the first supervisors there I met, and he was a big help during my transition into the building. He said if I had any questions to call him, and I did more than a few times. We would see each other in the building over the years working different events on the same shift, and we would talk all the time about politics, sports, and life in general. We even had the same kinds of Chrysler 300 vehicles with different colors. He was always a stand-up guy. From the time he took ill and had to stop working, I always asked his coworkers how he was doing.

My condolences to his family and to his friends who knew him best. I am sure he will be missed, but not forgotten. He made it home, he made it home, he made it home...may he rest in peace.

*Carlton Brathwaite
CES Security Event Manager*

Carlton Brathwaite - September 29, 2015 at 03:59 PM

MS

“ Dear Bernice, Our Sister in Christ
As you and your family mourn, we mourn with you. We are a community, your loss is our loss. We will keep you and your family in prayer. May the peace of the Lord be with all of you through this trying time in your lives. It will take some time, but God will return your lives to normal and you will find yourselves telling funning stories about Aaron and laughing with joy again. God bless all of you.

*Frederick Douglass Community Improvement Council
The Anacostia Historic District
Washington, D.C.*

Marian VanDyke Acting Secretary - September 28, 2015 at 09:47 PM

CG

“ Lord, we come to You through Your son, Jesus the Christ, in prayer for Bernice and her family. Nothing can be more painful to a parent than to bury her child. We pray that You, Father, will take Bernice and her family into Your hands and lessen their (human) pain and shorten their mourning. We pray that they will soon enjoy Your calling of Aaron and recall all of the joy he brought to his family. In this world, a privilege,

*Atty. & Mrs. Bernard A. Gray, Sr. & Family
Anacostia, District of Columbia*

Carolyn Johns Gray - September 28, 2015 at 03:18 PM

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Marshall-March Funeral Homes - September 28, 2015 at 08:20 AM