“ In Deepest Sympathy

Your loved one is now in Jesus strong arms, where he will sweetly rest, for that is where the angels have taken him so he can be happy and blessed. No more will he fear today or tomorrow, nor will he know pain and sorrow, only joy and lasting peace. Since his soul has been safely released Abraham will be greatly missed by family and friends, but you will see him one day again where life with Jesus will never have to end.##imported-begin##Stephanie Welch##imported-end##

“ My prayers are with you and may God bless you in this trying time. Please keep in mind, the Bible says, to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord. In short, know, your husband is present with the father of all fathers and he has achieved what all of us hopefully will achieve and that is to hear our father say 'Good and well done, you have been faithful over a few things, and now I shall make you a ruler of many.' ###imported-begin###Fred Lee###imported-end##

“ Toni & Family,

Bless God for the wonderful things HE has done!

The time shared with your husband/family member are memories you will never forget, but know that GOD has a set and appointed time for us all. We have to be ready just like Abraham to answer the call on our day. Trust and believe that GOD's choice is not our desires but He makes the best decisions that creates an eternity... keeping you and your family in prayer.

Yours in Christ,##imported-begin##Victor Thornton##imported-end##
