

Addie Mae Bush

April 25, 1922 - October 5, 2020

Addie Mae Bush was born April 25, 1922 in Washington, Georgia. She departed this life on Monday, October 5, 2020. She goes home to be with her parents Rubin and Lillie Mae Wingfield, her brother Willie Wingfield, and two sisters Carrie Lou Wingfield and Luneal Hannah.

Aunt Sis as everyone called her was educated in the small town of Washington Georgia. Addie Mae moved to the big city of Washington D.C. before her 18th birthday. She was baptized and attended Cherry Grove Baptist Church in Washington George. Addie Mae married Edward Bush Sr and from that union birth one son Edward Bush Jr. She loved good music and having a good time with family and friends. She especially enjoyed the five Blind Boys which she would listen to via tape every Sunday morning with her husband.

Aunt Sis worked for many years in the field of hospitality. She enjoyed cooking meals for her family and making sure everyone who came to her house ate well. She always wanted to travel. Her first trip back home was after almost 50 years in which she took her first plane ride. Aunt Sis loved all things sweet; sweet potato pie, honey buns, cheesecake and such.

Addie Mae will always be remembered as a kind, sweet, woman of God. She loved everyone and everyone loved her. Aunt Sis loved talking on the phone, laughing and joking with everyone. She loved watching all her favorite court shows especially Judge Judy, Judge Mathis and Judge Joe Brown to name a few. She also enjoyed doing her crossword puzzle in her find the word books.

Addie leaves to cherish her memories her loving husband Edward Sr. Their only son Edward (Shellie) Jr., 9 grand-children; Latrice, Renechia; Shamika, Harold, Devonne, Harvey, Erika, Lamont and Demiko; 8 great-grandchildren, 2 nieces Hazel and Evelyn. A host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, extended relative, church family and friends.
