“ My condolences to the Easley family. I will always cherish the memories of the times we all spent together. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless.

Danette Epps - April 02, 2016 at 12:45 PM

“ To the Easley Family, you have my condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. Mankind was created to live forever, but due to the disobedience of our fore-parents we all inherited sin resulting in sickness and death. However, all is not lost, thanks to what we read at John 3:16, which tells us that God sent his only son that we might have life everlasting. Because of the ransom, although we die, can live again. What a marvelous time it will be when we see our dead loved ones again. May you find comfort from God's Word, your friends and loved ones during this difficult time.

“ We wish to extend our condolences to the family. Death is an enemy that can bring much heartache and pain. May the family find comfort in knowing God will soon swallow up death forever and that many of those asleep in the dust of the ground will wake up. (Isaiah 25:8; Daniel 12:2).
