“ Our Ardria was a soft-spoken, kind and thoughtful daughter-in-law who was our son's true soulmate. Jay and Ardie enjoyed simple pleasures, like singing around the piano, watching the sunset, driving to no particular destination, cooking outdoors, taking photos, playing with their pets or games, fishing, visiting with family and friends, collecting new pals - and even inviting friends to come spend the night or weekend. Each of them loved the other's parents, and were interested in and involved with their extended families. They often brought small tokens or gadgets that they had seen somewhere and thought that we'd like. They played together - even pranks on each other - and on me! Clearly, they were meant for each other - and she was meant for us! We miss her.

“ I wish to send my deepest sympathy to Mrs. Cooper's family during this time. She was indeed a very special woman who in spite of life's adversities, always kept a genuine smile. She always had the ability to share joy to everyone she encountered, including me. She cared so much and it has been a blessing to know her. She has enriched my life and I will not forget her. Although I never said this to her, she was loved and I will miss her.##imported-begin##Devin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Dear Lezah, Roberts Family and Friends,
I know words cannot express adequately the comfort that all of you are in need of during this time of loss of Ardria, but I would like to try by saying green pastures await her and abundant love on her journey home. I know she will be greatly missed by all of you. However, remember that all of God's people will be together again. I work in Tech Ctr 1600 with Lezah. My prayers go out to each of you and for Ardria.
