

Albert J. Julia

June 13, 1928 - January 30, 2025

Albert Joseph Julia aka "Julie" departed this life peacefully Thursday January 30th 2025. He was born to the late Albert Julia Sr. and the late Modest Revineos on June 13th 1928 in Manhattan, New York. "Julie" was raised in and lived most of his young life in Bayonne, New Jersey. Then in 1947 at the age of 19 he moved to Washington, D.C. where he attended Howard University on an athletic scholarship. In 1950 he joined the United States Postal Service and was an exceptional letter carrier, who delivered mail on the same Shipley Terrace - Park Land route for 40 + years. In 1973 he married the late Claudeen Julia with whom he helped raise his two step children Luayne Ray-Johnson and the late Bernard Hayden Ray III.

"Julie" had a few favorite pastimes and hobbies he enjoyed such as tinkering with auctioned cars and reselling them through his "Honest Al's Auto Dealership"... buy at your own risk. He loved to fish and buy boats that never saw water. "Julie" also loved sports, baseball being his favorite and was a big Washington Nationals and Boston Red Sox fan. He also had a true compassion for animals and told us stories about his 3-legged horse he once owned and was often seen crying during those abandoned animal commercials.

"Julie" was preceded in death by his brother Walter Julia, step-son Bernard Hayden Ray III, and his loving wife Claudeen Julia. He leaves to cherish in his memory, step-daughter Luayne Ray-Johnson (Monrieka), Grandchildren:

Jasmine Sam, Brandi Sam, Bernard Sam, Kiante Bush (Jewel), Jaelin
Johnson, Najee Ray and two great-grands: Anthony Simar and Jordyn Bush.
