

Albert Letrail Rogers

December 15, 1950 - February 3, 2023

There comes a time in everyone's life when we must depart from those we love. That time came suddenly for Albert Letrail Rogers on February 3, 2023, making his stay in our lives for 72 years. He was born in Washington DC on December 15, 1950, to the late Wilbur and Juanita Rogers. He was educated in the District of Columbia Public School system. He had a spiritual relationship with God and was a member of Evangel Cathedral. He had an outgoing personality, dedicated worker, and had a great sense of humor.

Albert enlisted into the United States Marine Corp in February 1974. While serving in the Marine Corps, Albert received medals of honors which included the National Defense Service Medal and Sharpshooter Rifle Expert Badge. He was honorably discharged in February 1977. After he left the Marine Corps, Albert worked for close to 20 years at the Army Corps of Engineers where he was a carpenter. He loved working with his hands. He was always known to have a few projects on at any given time. He enjoyed making furniture as well as hand crafted home decorations. His home was a representation of his craftsmanship. He paid close attention to every detail when working on projects. After retirement he spent his time watching old Westerns which included John Wayne Marathons. He was a lover of Jazz. He also enjoyed a good fried fish sandwich.

Albert was preceded in death by his father Wilbur Rogers, mother Juanita

Rogers a sister Relvon Rogers and two brothers Harold Rogers and Tyrone Rogers. He leaves to cherish his memory three daughters LaTria G. Rogers, Beneka L. Megginson, and Kimberly M. White-Rogers; three sisters Aillen Rogers King, Mamie Earle and Cynthia Earle Mann; two grandsons, Aiden R. Megginson and Brandan J. Rogers-Anderson; two granddaughters Ari R. Megginson and Brooklynn S. Rogers-Anderson as well as a host of nieces and nephews.
