“ My deepest sympathy to the family of LaFrieta McMullen. We grew up together in Salisbury, N.C. She was my best friend. She was an only child and I had no sisters. Our relationship was special. We continued to stay in touch and visit each other over the years. She will forever hold a special place in my heart! Lottie Ruth “ Condolences to the Family of Alice LaFrieta McMullen. We shared college life and delights of her many travels. We remained connected through class reunions and visits in Washington, D.C and Houston, Texas. I will cherish these memories and pray that she rests in God's Care in Eternity. (8-20-2024).

“ I will always remember my classmate Lafrieta as a "Do It" person! Not only her presence at class reunions, alumni fund-raisers and memorial services, but on a one-one level. For many months (maybe years) I had talked with her about taking a joint trip to visit an out-of-state classmate. And then on August 3, 2022, she got this done; an enjoyable trip with her.

*LaFreita was my classmate for 4 years at Hampton Institute. We shared many fond experiences over those years. I send condolences to her family and pray that all LaFrieta's HI/U friends share in support of her family during this difficult time.
God Bless. Joylette Hylick, Class of 1962.*
