“ To the Collins Family,

My deepest sympathy on the death of Cousin Allene. She reminded me so much of my grandmother, Eloise Boone, your grandfather JC's sister. It has been a few years since I last saw her in North Carolina, but I again was so amazed how much she looked like my grandmother. May God wrapped you all in his loving arms at this difficult time, and know that that to be absence from the body is to be present with the Lord. My mom passed away 26 years ago, but whenever I would go to DC for business she met up with your mom. That Last time was at the Embassy Suites in DC. May God continue to bless you and keep you strong.

*Our Sincere Sympathy,
Cousin Stephanie Ayers and the Taylor Family*
