“ I first met Granda Davis at the Coleman family reunion in Mobile, Alabama. I saw her across the room and she looked so much like my great grandmother Bertha Coleman-Hall. I approached her to learn that she and my great grandmother were first cousins. We talked on several occasions where she shared with me details about my great grandmother I did not know. She immediately took me in as her family and invited me to her son's wedding in southern California. She had an amazing memory and often sent me holiday greeting cards. I wish I would have had more time to spend with her. Please accept my deepest sympathy for the lost of this great woman.##imported-begin##Robbin Coaxum##imported-end##
