

Almeta Murphy

April 18, 1934 - November 25, 2020

Almeta Murphy, daughter of the late John Williams and Freddie Ann Mills of Trenton, NC, received her wings on 11/25/2020 at 11:25am.

She was born on April 18, 1934 in Trenton, NC. She was educated and graduated from the Jones County Public School System.

As a young adult, she moved to Washington, DC and enjoyed a full life and dedicated 23 years of service to the Federal Government at Defense Mapping Agency.

Almeta had a caring soul and a selfless spirit! She was always giving of herself and time. She was very affectionate and loved giving hugs, even to complete strangers. You could most times find her in the kitchen cooking for her family and feeding anyone that happened to stop by, because her door was always open. Everyone couldn't wait for Almeta to host her annual August cook-out. She loved to bake and spent countless hours making her delicious cakes and banana pudding. She also loved sewing dresses and suits for herself and those close to her. She relaxed at home by watching her favorite shows (Let's Make a Deal, The Price is Right, News, Young and the Restless, The Bold and Beautiful and The Talk) and found joy in listening to her gospel music.

Almeta loved and lived for the Lord. She Joined St. Matthews Baptist Church on January 2, 1977, and gave her life to Christ on January 11, 1977. She was a loyal and dedicated member of the church for 43 years and served faithfully with the Deaconess Ministry and the Senior Usher Board. She attended Sunday School and service every Sunday and was always sharply dressed, complete with her fancy church hat. She also enjoyed traveling with her Senior Usher Board members and attending many church functions.

Almeta now joins her loved ones who preceded her in death. Parents; John William and Freddie Ann Mills, her loving brothers and sisters; John Williams, Leroy Williams, George Williams, Dora Murphy, James Williams, Mary Hooker, and her children: Preston Murphy Jr., Norman Jean Murphy and Kenneth Earl Murphy.

She left to reflect on her life and legacy, husband Preston Murphy, her children; Gonia Moore, Angela Murphy, Calvin Murphy (Berlene), and Benita Murphy, seven grandchildren; Katrina Weber, Calvin Murphy Jr., Charita Moore, Adaiha Montgomery (Jermaine), Kenneth Murphy, Kyle Murphy and Alfonso Murphy, five great grandchildren; Terran Hicks Jr., Imani Deny, Ezra Deny, Janaya Montgomery and Jermaine Montgomery II; her sister Marie Hill (Ayden, NC) and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
