“ First and foremost, as a friend of the family, I'd like send my deepest condolences and to thank you all for allowing me to attend the funeral. Although I did not get the chance to deeply know Ms. Alsea Green, I saw at the funeral how the family was affected by her passing - and the comments in the guest book also show how much she affected her loved ones and how she will be missed. Marvinna, from your comments in the guest book, I am sincerely happy in your making peace with your grandmother before her passing; I love you and I'm here for you. And I am sure that wherever your grandmother is, she is at peace.##imported-begin##Pleasure Young##imported-end##

“ To TC and family:

As much as I know you will miss your Mom, God loves her more and has taken her home. The blessing is in knowing that you will be reunited with her sooner than we know. May God bless you and keep you and your family through the days and weeks to come. If you need me I am only a phone call away.##imported-begin##Watina Greene##imported-end##

“ Hey Grandma, i miss you. I know that you are here with me spiritually but that doesnt change the fact that I want you here physically. I have apologized many times before and this time is no different. There are things that we have made peace with that no one will know or understand but us and thats probably how you would want it, I hear you know "that's the past child, let sleeping dogs lie." I love you, no we all love you. I had not reallu understoiod alot of things until maybe last year but of course you know that and now more and more life seems so much clearer because of you and in being blessed to being a part of you and who you are and who you have been not just to me and the family but every one whose path you crossed. You are so amazing even in your passing that I am amazed but I know I shoulkdn't be. Well I know you are happy cause you have your old crew back - you, momma, granddaddy and cle. Just please continue to watch over us and bless us and keeus in line and together. Yeah I know, this is where you say "ok now don't run your phone bill up" and I say ok grandma " I love you" with no response from you and we hang up the phone to deal with ourselves.##imported-begin##Marvina##imported-end##

“ Dear Momma,

I will truly miss you. I know that you did not know the power you had as a Black woman in America. In your own ways you blazed the road for me to understand the meaning of life and the ability to know the creator. You have told me many things without words 1 there is a God 2The Golden Rule 3Take care of family. I love you momma, yesterday, today and always. You will never be missed because you are in my heart. As my blood flow so will be your memories. Take care Momma, and keep me on the right road. If you see be not doing the will of God, just say your famous words" Alright, Thomascine, enough is enough." For the many times I wanted to hug you and didn't, for the many times I wanted to say I Love you and couldn't and for the many times I wanted to say Momma you're are the Best", I am saying it all now in the best way I know how, to continue your love you had for mankind. I hold you up as you held me up with saying "the only thing greater than you is that who made you, my God, my God." Now Momma your job is finished and my job is now beginning in the next chapter in our book of life.

The family is united as one, June has taken the flame to light the path, to led the family in the direction that you would be proud.

Until we meet face to face, spirit to spirit in the room of our Father you will always be in my heart.

For your daughter,

Thomasine Amelia Greene##imported-begin##Thomascine##imported-end##
