“ Mrs. Morton-Moore (Regina), I am indeed truly sorry for your loss. Mr. Moore was a stand-up dude, and every time you both came into the office it was always a joy and a pleasure to see you. The last time I saw you both, while he wasn't feeling the best, he still kept that same old great spirit and a hearty laugh. That's how I'll remember him. Know that he loved you more than anyone else of Earth, and he appreciated all that you did for him, which he often shared with me when he came to see me alone. He was a trooper and fought valiantly until the end. May you be at peace knowing that he is now in peace, and resting in the arms of his Master.

Sincerely,

Dr. Michangelo Scruggs

I know you loved him but remember God loved him best. If there is anything I can do, please do not hesitate to call. May God Bless and Keep You!!
