“ My uncle and I shared a unique bond and I will miss him very, very much. I know, from personal conversations and intimate visits, that he is in the very presence of God Almighty at this very moment. His life was well spent and his legacy of dignity and grace lives on in each of his family members. We are all better people for having known Andrew B. Lyles. He was truly a man among men. I love him, and know Jesus Christ, his Lord and Savior and mine, loves him still. "Enjoy Heaven, Unc'!" Always, Marvin.##imported-begin##Marvin Matthews##imported-end##
