“ It's been twelve years. I've visited this site more times than I can count. I know no one will read this and it will be lost in a sea of online comments and notes. I know it makes no sense for me to do this because I don't remember anything. What I do know is I missed out and I can only hope that you are watching over me and forgiving my mistakes. Most of all o hope you're proud. I've lived my life not having you, my only connection stories and memories. I may not remember you but I love you. I hope one day we will meet again and until then I'm everything you dreamed I would be. If not everything then at least someone you are happy to call a daughter.

It's hard to imagine that you are gone, but I am dealing with it. Sometimes I think you are here. I feel your presence sometimes. I miss you, and I miss our laughs and conversations. I love you and write more later.

“ Hey Andrey, this is your little sister. I miss you so much. Life just feels weird now, like there is something missing. Sometimes I am in so much disbelief that when I have a problem i'll think to call you, but then I realize I can't. I'm moving forward and accomplishing many things as you can see from above. Things are happening for me just like you said they would. A lot of people never took the time to notice how many blessings you spoke over people and how much love was truly in your heart. I'll write later.

I love you

“ To the friend, you can't talk about our family history with Andrey unless you were there. I had been homeless for a small period in my life and I can't blame Keith or my mother for the choices I made. Everyone has rules, standards, they live by in there homes. If invited in you must obide by them. Andrey made choices that as a man had to see through to the end, just like everyone else. No matter what Andrey did he knew he could show up at his family's door and get any help that he need. And he did. He is loved by his family.##imported-begin##Somone##imported-end##

“ Oh my God! Are we talking about the same person? #1 For the purpose of clarification Keith Glenn is not Andreys father. Andrey slept outside in the rain, snow, and freezing cold hows that for guilt? Andrey confided in his friends . We know all We know EVERYTHING!!! GUILT You have got to be kidding..##imported-begin##a friend##imported-end##

February 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ For the purpose of clarification, Andrey Bruner was the Son of Andrea and Keith Glenn, Brother of Somone Bruner, Melwood Davis, Arian Patterson, Keneathia Bruner, and Father of Andrea Bruner Baby Andrea. He was not an "orphan" or homeless person. For those who unfairly characterize him like this during his life and even after his death, please find another way to absorb and deal with your personal guilt. As with all Children of God, Andrey was given the ability to exercise the right of "free will" and make his own decisions. Andrey's decisions were the determining factors regarding his life up until his time of death. He didn't need a place to live because he fully was supported by his family. If you have any questions or are confused about who Andrey Rhyan Bruner was during his life here on earth or after his death, please contact his Father or Mother Keith & Andrea Glenn.

The Glenn and Bruner Family ask that you not make negative comments about our Son on this site of mourning or any other location.

“ This news is completely devastating. Andrey had so much adversity in his short life, and I will never forgive myself for not being able to keep him after my house burned down. I will always remember him as a boy with no home, an orphan, who always dreamed of having a family of his own and being a great father.

Andrey was very tender hearted, and very kind. I will always remember him and time he spent with me and my kids; for a short time he was one of my kids too...

Please feel free to contact me.

“ Drey-

We definitely had our differences, but we always came together. You always carried yourself as if you were the older brother even though I was the oldest. I know that you wanted to protect. That's what you all you wanted to do for the people you loved most. Protect them from bad things. I will always be grateful and love you for that. You were often misunderstood and you made some bad decisions just like everyone in this world, but that never made you a bad person. Just human. I wish I could have been there more and will miss your smile, conversations, our debates, compassion, and your sense of humor. I am very glad that you have your daughter to live on and know that you will be watching over her as well as all of us. I don't know if you knew how much I loved and cared for you, but I have an abundant amount of love for you that will never die. I miss you and will write again soon.

With all the love I have-

“ Drey,

When you left, you took apart of us with you. However, you left us with something very special, your smile, your eyes and your compassion for others are just a few of the things you have given to our daughter, and for that I want to thank you! Just as you will be watching over and helping to guide her, you will be in our hearts and on our minds. We will always miss you, but your love will live on. Thank you!###imported-begin##Jen##imported-end##

“ Andrey, you were everything to me and then some. I loved that I could tell you anything and you would totally understand. When you left this earth a peice of my heart went with you. I am so sorry that you felt like you had no way out and no one could help you. But now I can make my peace because I know that you are in a place now where there is no sorrow and sadness has no existence. You did way more than be my brother while you were alive, you were my best friend. I will always and forever love you and I know we be together again, but this time it will be in a lifetime that is painless and eternal.

Love,

“ What I remember of Drey is pretty much what everyone else remembers his smile, his laugh, his sincerity. He had a contemplative soul, & thought deeply about the world around him... I am indeed honored that all of these aspects, The essence of Drey, will live with me forever, in his greatest gift to me my granddaughter, Andrea.##imported-begin##Dorsey White##imported-end##

“ Andrey Rhyan Bruner~A good, Caring, Selfless person, describes him best. No matter how bad his life was, no matter how troubling things got for him he would still strive to do right and make a change with a smile on his face never to fade. No matter how bad he was treated by others he still cared for them and was there for them. It's a tragedy to see someone who at one point in time had all the love in the world for others in his life even if they didn't show it in return he still carried that love for them and showed them he loved them, this person who had an appreciation for life even when he was at rock bottom, someone who always seemed to see a positive side of things, now only in our memories forever. It's hard to go on thinking that there will be no more memories to add but it's easy to go on knowing that Andrey is in a better place and smiling down on the people he loved and cared about. Watching over them as they continue their own journey of life. RIP Andrey Ryhan Bruner~You will never be forgotten##imported-begin##Samantha##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to the Bruner family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away our loved ones. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold our loved ones can be most difficult to bear. The pain is not necessarily erased by being told that our loved ones are up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. It is God's desire and promise that you see Andrey again in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions where death will be no more. Please read these promises at John 5;28,29; Psalm 37;29; and Rev. 21;3,4. No doubt your heart yearns to see Andrey again. If you would like to make this sure hope your very own, please feel free to contact me. Take care,###imported-begin##Roxanne Thompson###imported-end##
