“ Dear Michael & Family,
There are no words to express my heartfelt sorrow for the death of Angela. I can only offer you & the family some comfort with these words from the Gospel of John, chapter 5:24; Very truly,I tell you anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment,but has passed from death to life.
Angela had a relationship with God, which she would build and shape her spiritual life. Angela knew God,because you know God. At this moment, Angela possesses an understanding of God that none of us here can come close to imagining. I believe that with all my heart. You must believe it,too. For it is that belief that sustains our faith through the most difficult of times.
Please accept my condolences. I am here whenever you need me. You have my love and support you through this saddest of times. You are in our prayers.
Your Brother in Christ.

“ Dear Covington Family,

Angela and I worked together at Oakcrest Elementary School. I am very saddened to hear of her passing. I saw her this past Sumer in a grocery store and she was just as beautiful inside and out as I remember working with her. Please know that my thought are with you now and for days, weeks and months to come. I send a hug to michael and Jessica who I remember getting off the bus and meeting their mom at the school. To Mr Covington, GOD WIL COMFORT YOU. To the mother and siblings and extended family, The Lord God will comfort you and hold you during this great loss. Lots of love, Lauri Butler and Family

A Prayer by St. Francis of Assisi

*Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, harmony;
Where there is error, truth;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.*

Angela, will be truly missed.
