“ Hi angela, I remember so many days at PTO where you were a part of the Pto family. You were always so quiet but had the biggest beautiful smile. God has called you home but your beautiful spirit will never be gone. May you rest in Peace.

“ Angie was a friend who became my best friend for 17 years. I am going to miss her jokes, laugh, smile, calling my husband Mr. Gary, our talks....everything about her. I'm still in shock and disbelief over this. We shared so many secrets, being on the phone talking and texting late at night. I'm constantly praying for comfort and strength for her parents, brothers and especially her children and grandson. This one hit hard and hurt so bad. I love you forever, Puddin💔💔💔😭

“ I'm Fred's mother, and I met Angie in person September of last year when her and my son (her boyfriend) took me & my husband to the airport for a planned trip we had. She had such a pleasant spirit about her and I like her right away. Not many mother's like their son's girlfriends!. I never got to thank you in person for the beautiful purse you brought me for Christmas and the dollar you placed inside of it for good measures. So THANK YOU ANGIE,I will wear it in your memory. I was told that you search high and low on Christmas Eve for the perfect gift for me and I really appreciate your loving and kind effort. You will be missed! Rest In Heavenly Peace!

“ Angela is my cousin/niece. Her mom and I were reared like sisters. We live in Virginia and we often shared our summer vacations together as children. Angela was an amazing daughter to her parents, children, grandson and her brothers. Angela is deeply loved and will sorely missed by all of us. Praying that GOD will continue to comfort you in the day’s ahead! Lovingly submitted, The Thompson

“ May God comfort you all during this time of great loss. There is a sense of helplessness when someone we love dies. Many wonder how one gets through this time? Take time to reflect on the good times you shared with your love ones. Prayer is extremely valuable
