

Anna Pope

October 4, 2007

Anna Pope of Northwest Washington, DC departed this life on Thursday, October 4, 2007 .

She is survived by her beloved sons, Oscar, Phillip, and Abert Pope; loving daughters, Rosa Morgan, Effie Davis, Lillie Pope and Phyllis Ewing; devoted sister Claudia Foster, 23 dear grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

To send condolences or a lasting tribute to the Pope family, please sign the online guestbook. Click "Sign Guestbook".

Tribute Wall

“ Anna Pope

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ As time goes by, I realize that you were my resource, my friend, I can't keep up with a comb, a safety pen, a glue stick, one dollar bills and news from Pulaski, I miss your sense of humor and the telephone calls of your friends. Missing you -- EFFIE##imported-begin##Effie##imported-end##

May 15, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ You all have my Deepst Sympothy##imported-begin##Sadie Martin##imported-end##

March 01, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ I miss you, Grandma. With Love, Altovise##imported-begin##Altovise Ewing##imported-end##

February 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ OOOWEE MAMA, I JUST GOT A TASTE FOR HOTWATER CORNBREAD AND GREENS, LATER MAYBE, I WILL BE ABLE TO MAKE A SALMON CAKE. MISSING YOU EFFIE##imported-begin##EFFIE##imported-end##

February 26, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ ##imported-begin##Brenda Munusamy##imported-end##

October 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ May God bless you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Andy & Etha##imported-end##

October 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ God blesses us with people in our lives who he knows will impact the way in which we live. My grandma was no exception. I will always remember the early mornings she woke me for school by tickling my feet, knowing I did not want to be awoken that way. The tasty "ugly bread" that was made without following a written recipe. The trips "to town" in a cab or with one of her many friends who drove a car. Getting free popcorn and stickers at FNB. Helping Grandma clean her room, a never ending task that seemed to always get done when I was not around. Grandma heating water on the heater so we could take a warm bath all 3 of us together. Tea and oatmeal in the morning and "the stories" blasting through the house. The Price is Right. Game show network. Her calling my name from her bedroom to the den in a high pitched voice stressing Al-Denise. Church being an ALL day Sunday event. Grandma chasing a lizard out of the house. The 4th of the July fireworks show that she calmly watched from the front porch even though the roman candle was pointed toward her. Birthday cards with $2. Peppermint at church. Her hairstyles with braids. Her washing clothes. The numerous bibles. Sweepstakes. The color Red. Greens and Sweet potatoes and corn bread. Gravy. Calling in birthdays on WKSR. Grandma going to get the horse when it got out. Walking places. Her favorite hymns and spirituals Get Right Church & Leave it There. The list could go on. However, above all, I remember that she never had a bad day, her smile never faded even when she was sick, her passion for sharing the love of Jesus, and the way in which she raised me to be a humbe, loving, God-Fearing child of the King.

I love you Grandma and you will be missed dearly, but I know you're sleeping now and we will meet again in a mansion in the sky.##imported-begin##Aldenise##imported-end##

October 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Phyllis & the Al's,
This is just a note to let you know the Cross family prayed for your strength & comfort during the homegoing of Ms. Anna. She would not trade her paradise gained for anything. Altovise & Phyllis, you all were so strong during your readings. I admire your strength. May God bless you all and keep you. Pray for us & we will pray for you all as well.

Love ya,
Benita##imported-begin##Benita Cross##imported-end##

October 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Mama,
I miss you. I love you and I will hold to the memories we share.##imported-begin##Phyllis P. Ewing##imported-end##

October 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM