

Annie Laura Blair

December 11, 1922 - December 3, 2018

Annie L. Blair

Of Washington, D.C. was called home by God on Monday, December 3, 2018 at the age of 95. Annie retired after 23 years of federal government service from the Office of the Architect of the Capital. She enjoyed cooking for others, fellowshiping with friends & family and operating her successful catering business with her sister, Florence. She will forever be remembered for her legendary culinary skills and her warm hospitality to all, making her home the gathering spot. She was a strong, loving and God-fearing woman with a joyous view on life. She leaves to cherish her memory, brother Billy Looper, daughter Carolyn Riley, granddaughter Tedra (Komunyaka) Williams-Lewis, great-nieces Alicia and Patricia Jackson and a host of other nieces, nephews and good friends. She was preceded in death by husband Andrew T. Blair; parents Deacon and Mrs. Arthur H. and Annie Mae Looper, Sr.; and siblings, Florence Knolton, Ruth Morgan, Nellie, Arthur Jr., Walter, Paul, Joseph, Grady, Roy, James Cleveland, and Ralph Looper. Homegoing Services will be held on Tuesday, December 11, 2018 at 11am (viewing: 9:30am to 11am) at The Greater First Baptist Church, 2701 – 13th Street, NW, Washington, DC. Interment will follow at Fort Lincoln Cemetery.
