“ I can spend eternity writing about the impact you've had on my life Annie D! There isn't a day, month or year that goes by where you don't cross my heart and mind. You left such a strong and loving imprint on me and Nate, your daughters, your great grands and so many others forever. Your bold, feisty, honest and wise spirit will forever be missed. You had an amazing way of telling it like it was, no sugar coating it all while all wrapping it up in a hug of hope. You held me accountable and empowered me to never stay defeated but to try again, do something new, work harder and believe with a strong faith! I know your life was not an easy one, but you taught me that it's not how you begin but how you push to the very end! You did just that Grandma!!

Along with our memories and endless pictures, I believe I cherish your love for God and our special bond that grew stronger with each day, most of all.

I am honored to have called you my grandma and I pray that my life and actions meet up to what you dreamed, prayed and fasted over my life! I miss you dearly but I am grateful God wrapped you in his loving arms and that I too will meet you and my Savior in loving arms one day. Dont worry, your songbird is still singing:

*"My heart can sing when I pause to remember
A heartache here is but a stepping stone
Along a trail that's winding always upward,
This troubled world is not my final home.*

*But until then my heart will go on singing,
Until then with joy I'll carry on,
Until the day my eyes behold the city,
Until the day God calls me home".*
