

ANNIE M HAGOOD

February 15, 1936 - November 22, 2010

Annie Mae Hagood, affectionately known as “Annie Mae” to some and “Ann” to others, was born on February 15, 1936 to the late David Hagood and Mary Williams Hagood. She was the youngest of eleven children and was raised and educated in Pendleton/Anderson, South Carolina. She went home to be with the Lord on November 22, 2010.

Annie Mae moved to Washington, D.C. in the late 1950s. She graduated from Atlantic Business College and was later employed by various agencies of the US Federal Government for over 25 years. She was well loved by all of her co-workers and retired from the Department of Labor in 1994. She was a member of New Samaritan Baptist Church and dearly loved her church family. She served initially in the Usher Ministry and later used her talents in the Culinary Ministry.

Annie Mae was preceded in death by Connor David Lewis, a loving father to all their children. She leaves to cherish her memory, four children: one daughter, Yvette (Benjamin) and three sons, Kenneth, Keith and Anthony (LaJuan). She was the proud grandmother of seven grandchildren: Kennitra, Vanessa, Quiana, Tobias, LaTonya, Tinarah and Taezar. She also had seven great grandchildren.

Also cherishing her memory: two brothers; Nelson (Dorothy) and Joe Cephus (Gladys); two sister-in-laws (Eva Mae and Hattie Mae); a special friend, Henry Murphy; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and many friends.

“ To the children and grandchildren of Annie Mae--I will miss the long conversations we shared. She always kept me laughing, gave me many words of wisdom and I always kept her updated with the down south memories. I will surely miss her. Cousin Linda Reese Starkes--Greenville, SC.
