In Loving Memory of Anny Jean Logan

Anny Jean Logan, age 75, passed away on May 11, 2025, at Washington Hospital Center due to complications from COPD. Born in Northwest Washington, D.C., she was a woman of unwavering faith and kindness, dedicated to her beliefs and to helping others.

Anny devoted over 15 years to her work as a cashier at CVS, where her warm presence brightened the days of customers and colleagues alike. She had a deep love for reading scriptures and remained steadfast in her faith throughout her life. Her generosity knew no bounds—she regularly contributed to St. Jude’s Children’s Hospital, Children’s Hospital in Haiti, and numerous other charities. Those who knew her at Abram’s, where she resided, spoke highly of her kindness and admired her gentle yet firm nature.

Anny was a devoted mother, raising her daughter, Tonya Logan Greenidge, with love and dedication. She worked hard to provide for her child, ensuring that each Christmas was magical and back-to-school seasons were met with new clothes and excitement. She treasured quiet moments with Tonya, sharing meals of pork chops, fried apples, and biscuits—creating lasting memories of warmth and love. She was strong, private, and unwavering in her values, yet deeply sweet and caring.

Anny was preceded in death by her parents, Willie Logan and Mattie Jones, her sister, Earlene Logan, and several beloved aunts and uncles. She leaves behind her daughter, Tonya Logan Greenidge, and son-in-law, Vincent Greenidge, along with her dear friend, William Lucas, who remained a true gentleman throughout their friendship. She is also survived by her loving aunt, Verlie Logan.

Now at peace, free from pain, Anny is walking in heaven—her beautiful smile and joyful laugh filling the air. She is deeply missed and forever cherished
