

Anthony James Capers

January 28, 1967 - February 8, 2006

Anthony James Capers was born on January 28, 1967 to Jennifer Smith Hebron and the late James Capers. He departed this life on Wednesday, February 8, 2006.

Anthony James Go-Go Capers, as he was affectionately known, was educated in the District of Columbia public school system. He played defensive lineman for McKinley Technical High School's football team in Washington, DC. Anthony was an avid weight lifter and won several trophies in various weight-lifting competitions.

He was a gentle giant who could charm anyone with his infectious smile. He had the uncanny ability of being able to make people laugh.

Anthony leaves to cherish his memory, a loving mother, Jennifer Smith Hebron; stepfather, Deno Hebron; a grandmother, Aquila Capers; one sister, Nichelle Jordan Nickey; two brothers, Kevin Smith and Vincent KnightVinnie; one brother-in-law, Blaise Jordan; three aunts, Mary Tarik, Betty Smith and Betty Minor; eight uncles, Donald Smith, Daral Smith, Ricky Smith, Nathaniel Smith, Bernard Smith, Michael Smith, Oduno Tarik and Timothy Capers and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Anthony better known as Capers! He was a joy to be around & will be missed. I'm his childhood friend Toot from Fort Lincoln my brother the late Bobby Bob Davis was his school mate. Today someone just told me of Capers passing. I can remember anointing him with oil and praying with him that God will cover him through his breathing illness. By his confessions I know he was a believer and now his breathing is clear & he's resting until Christ comes for us all. I'll continue to keep the family in prayer. We must have a personal relationship with Jesus. He is the only one that can save us eternally. Remember this passage, "To live is Christ and to die is gain" Philippians 1:21 Eternal Life God Bless You all Kevin, Vincent & Nikki. Capers was a blessing to my life.
