“ I was able to spend some quality time with Tony at the family reunion in Tallahassee just a few weeks ago. He and I took a drive to the Walgreens and laughed all the way there. Always the gentleman, when we were at the check-out, he actually started to pick up my 24-pack of bottled water so he could carry it to the car for me, even though he was unsteady and could hardly walk himself. I had to grab it and put it in the cart so he wouldn't. He was a true gentleman and a loving spirit. I'll miss the "hare."

“ To the Johnson Family: Nothing that is ever loved is ever lost..No one who has touched a life, who has brought beauty to the world, is ever truly gone. Those we cherish will live on in memory. Lean upon God's strength in your hour of sorrow. Hopefully you will remember the love and good times you shared with Tony, and may it give you some degree of comfort to know that he is at peace in God's care.

“ Hello my name is James i have not had the priviledge to meet Mr. Johnson personally but my deepest sympothy goes out to all your family and friends. Loosing a love one is one if not the hardest things we have to face, But the bible gives us comfort and a sure hope! At Acts 24:15 "that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" and after that marvelous resurrection the bible states at Revelations 21:4 "that Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from there eyes and death will be no more niether will mourning nor outcry be anymore. The former things have passed away! The last encouraging scripture i would like to leave you all with is found at Psalms 37:29 Where it says "The righteous themselves will posses the earth and they will reside forever upon it. So hopefully you can find real comfort in these sure promises found right in God's word the bible. If any have any questions please feel free to contact myself or any one of Jehovah's Witnesses who will be more than happy to help you see how you can be in line to see all these blessings and many more, just think of the marvelous joy you will get when you see all your loved ones again! My deepest and heartfelt sympothy , J. Commander

May name is Frances O. McCannon, sister-in-law to Bertha Cobb. I never met Tony, but I know/knew his parents. To the Johnson family, when someone you love goes home to be with the Lord, you know they're in a better place, but your sorrow and pain are still great. Just remember II Corinthians 1:3 (NKJV) 'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort'. He will not leave you comfortless. God Bless you all.
