“ I was privileged to be not only a friend but also serve as Primary Care Provider to Anthony during my career at Kaiser Permanente. The supplies office was adjacent to mine and we would discuss football (Anthony being a Giants fan), and life's challenges. He was always positive and very soft spoken. This has been such a devastating loss. May your gentle soul find eternal comfort in the bosom of the Lord. My condolences to his family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Anthony at Kaiser in Largo, Md. He was always so polite and friendly looked forward to seeing his smiling face when he delivered supplies to the Oncology Department. He always smelt so good with the cologne he was wearing. I would tease him and tell him to come close so I could smell him. He was a fine young man. RIP my friend you will be missed. 😇

This was so heartbreaking and still difficult to believe our dear Anthony has transitioned to his heavenly home.

Anthony was one of the sweetest, and most kindest individuals you could have ever met; he was such a hard working man with a great work ethic, who had a beautiful spirit with an incredible personality/character that speaks for him in every aspect.

Anthony had a wonderful demeanor and was such an easy going guy, who was always pleasant, graciously respectfully with politeness, and lovingly kind ... always looking out for his people/peers. Anthony would always ask, " how are you doing?", and, "you good?" Anthony always ensured our departmental supply needs were met, he was one of the best. He wasn't just a coworker, he was a also friend, who typically greeted myself and others with his adorable bright smile and delightful laughter, along with his warm embracing hug, and for some others, the cool brotherly hand shake encounter; it was such a pleasure to be around this awesome guy and sweetheart. He will truly be missed, his memories will live on in our hearts, and the precious moments in time will be remembered and cherished.

I express my deepest sympathy and most sincere heartfelt condolences, and also, I pray for peace and comfort for Anthony's family, relatives, friends, and colleagues, at this difficult time of bereavement. Beloved Anthony Jones, you are forever in our hearts, although you may be gone but not forgotten, you are being missed dearly my friend/my Big Guy ~Teddybear. Beloved, you have fought a good fight and now, rest peacefully in heaven. 🌹

*With sympathy and love,
Florence Richardson, KP*
