“ Anthony R. Means

“ Anthony was always quick with a smile and happy to help in any way. When I lived on C St, he would often move my trash can to or from the street before I could. He always talked about the time we went to the movies and kept in touch even after I moved from D.C. I will miss the brief updates when he would call and he was a faithful letter writer. I am so sorry to learn of his passing. He was a kind-hearted man and gentle soul.

“ Our deepest condolences to the Means family for the loss of Anthony. He was an important part of our community on 10th Street - he was warm, welcoming, and always ready with a smile and conversation. One day when crossing the street with our daughters we dropped an item in the street. All of our arms were full with jackets, books, water bottles and school supplies. He picked up the item and helped the girls rearrange their loads so that we could make it home with everything in hand. That small gesture showed the care and connection that he offered to every person in the neighborhood, old and young alike. He is already missed. Ann, Patrick, Naila and Emilia

“ We need more people on this Earth like Anthony. He showed us what it means to lead a truly meaningful and productive life. We know we're supposed devote ourselves to serving others, but Anthony actually did it -- and he did it in all sincerity and without guile. After my husband had shoulder surgery, it was Anthony who always asked him how his shoulder was feeling. Such a lovely person, and a blessing to us all!

“Anthony was our neighbor and our friend for 16 years. I have so many memories of him, including voting alongside him in 2008 and my young son learning to speak his name (“An-nuh-knee”). His absence leaves a terrible hole in our community and in our hearts.

Rest easy, friend.

“ Oh my God I was in shock to hear that my dear friend (Tony) we lost 😞 I was driving at the time and actually had to pull over. I had a very short time with Mr Means He was a very good person and gave you his all at work. We gonna miss you Tony God had chose to take you home cause he new you wasn't going back to work and new retirement was at your door step. But God knows best and the best decision for him is to stop all the hurt and suffering we hurting in our hearts but we know it's the best call God Bless the family.

Anthony was a loving and devoted church member and friend. On Sundays, he would help me get my daughter out of the car and across the street...then he did the same for my grandchildren until they were grown. I never had to get a church bulletin, Palm, calendar or other programs. He would hide them in a secret place for me and made sure I got them. He now and will always have a secret place in my heart ❤️
