

Anthony (Tony) Harrison Washington

November 19, 1966 - April 4, 2025

Anthony Harrison Washington, known as Tony to his family, was born November 19, 1966, in Newark, New Jersey to Geraldine (Valentine) Washington and Samuel Washington. He was raised in Montclair, New Jersey. He graduated from Montclair High School and was known to be part of the Body Rock Crew (BRC).

Anthony served in the Navy for four years and was stationed at Norfolk, Virginia. Following his service he met his wife Carolyn (Wilkins) Washington in Norfolk. They were married there in November 1996.

Anthony worked in sales for over 20 years, most recently for Metro Flooring in Lithicum, MD. Anthony had a sense of humor about him. Although situations he had to deal with daily with customers were sometime serious, he could always make light of the situation by using humor. Around his co-workers, Anthony avoided curse words and used sayings like "Christmas in the morning, or Jiminey-crickets" which his co-workers eventually picked up.

Anthony was a positive, happy person who was well liked by his colleagues and loved by his family and friends. He had a large love for life and all those who shared it with him. His presence illuminated every room, bringing warmth, laughter, and a sense of camaraderie to all who knew him. He was a very proud chef, cooking for the family every night and grilling whenever it moved him. He especially enjoyed watching Monday night wrestling and movies, collecting X-Men comic books, was a big fan of R &B music, but mostly he loved cooking and spending time with his family.

Anthony leaves to cherish his memory, his loving and devoted wife, Carolyn (Wilkins) Washington, his daughters, Taylor and Tyler; his mother, Geraldine (Valentine) Washington, brother Quincy Washington (LaTrenda) from Atlanta and their children, Spencer, Trinity and Quincy's Eldest child Camille, from Florida and a host of other relatives and friends.
