My dear husband,best friend,this is Juicie your wife.I'm feeling the lost of the dearest person to my heart beside my lord and savior Jesus. I have hard times getting through this but through the lord's way he's taking care of me and watching over me. I go through my "moments" and it becomes hard sometimes to pull myself out of it. I know this will take time. The love we had that we shared was genuine and special. I was blessed with a smart, intelligent, and funny person for 14years the Lord released you to me. You always found time to make me smile and laugh til it hurts. BUt now the tears get harder and harder to dry. For the lord is my best friend now and I give praises for him for taking over watching you. I will miss you and call your name everyday and the lord will reach out and let me know you are okay Anthony I love you and never will stop loving you. I will talk to you later love you.

Your wife

“ Daddy I love you and I miss you so much. I visited your grave yesterday with the kids, they wanted to see you. The pain of not having you here with me is rough but the memories you left with me make it a little easier. I remember every lesson and I now understand that you were trying to prepare me to be able to live the life you knew I could should you ever go away. I'm trying hard daddy. I had only been 26 for 6 days when you left I thought we had forever together but now you're forever in my heart.

We'll dance together again one day :)
