Wendell, I will miss our visits and our long talks about our family and the work you did in the dialysis field. We never talked about your military life. I just loved being around your cool, calm demeanor. RIP, your work here on earth is done, you have gone home to be with the Lord.

Uncle Archie, Thank you from my heart for the care and guidance that you and Aunt Rina bestowed upon me as your niece as well as carried into adulthood and now through future generations. You will always be appreciated and loved.
