Arrie Wilson Davis, son of Arrie W. Davis Sr. and Mary Edna Wilson Davis, was born in Baltimore, MD on July 21, 1940. He departed this life on Monday, November 27, 2023. His exemplary life began by attending primary and secondary public schools in Baltimore, graduating from Frederick Douglass Senior High School in 1957. Arrie had a lifelong appreciation for music, playing and listening to classical piano including Beethoven and Tchaikovsky. Beyond teaching, Arrie never missed an opportunity to mentor young attorneys. Arrie was also a member of the Maryland State, Baltimore City, Monumental City, J. Franklyn Bourne Bar Associations, and the Harry A. Cole Judicial Council.

On March 2, 1981, Arrie was appointed as an Associate Judge for the District Court of Maryland for District 1 located in Baltimore City. Two years later, he was elevated to the Baltimore City Circuit Court, where he served as an associate judge for seven years. From December 1990 until 2010, he served as Judge for the Court of Special Appeals, Maryland's second highest court. He continued serving as a retired judge, specially assigned until 2017.

“ I am so saddened to hear about the passing of The Hon. Judge Davis (UBalt Law Class of '69)! I'm sending my sincerest and most heartfelt condolences to his family and to all of those who loved him!

Unfortunately, I never had the opportunity to meet Judge Davis personally. Our BLSA Chapter at the University of Baltimore School of Law has a Scholarship Award named in honor of him. We were hoping to have Judge Davis as a guest at our annual chapter banquet last school year, but we learned that, unfortunately, he was not in good health at that time. Our chapter will continue to honor Judge Davis's legacy and to cherish his memory in our hearts!

“ Judge Davis was the consummate professional in every respect. He never let his robe stand in the way of caring about people. We have had many interesting discussions over the years and I valued his wise counsel. Thank you for your service to our profession.

“ Judge Davis gave his sage guidance to so many of us African American judges, as our numbers swelled from the few to more, in a manner that was gentle yet uncompromising. He made certain that we understood the significance of our roles and the context within which we served. As a leader of the Harry A. Cole Judicial Council, he helped fellow members remember our history, impressing upon each of us how that history informs the present. Not merely a scholar and brilliant legal mind, Judge Davis was a friend and unacknowledged mentor to me and so many others that he dared to urged to give our best.

“ Rest in peace Judge Arrie W. Davis. Condolences to Judge Davis’s family, loved ones, friends, former law clerks and staff. In 1993, Judge Davis took a chance and hired me as one his two Law Clerks. It was one of the best, most important, experiences of my life. Judge Davis treated me and his entire team with incredible trust and respect. He shared with me how he thought as a jurist and a writer and helped me improve my legal thinking and writing. Judge Davis was an incredible hard worker with a passion for detail and clear writing (He was at his desk at 6 am if I recall right!). Every opinion he authored went through a painstaking process to make sure it was right in every way. He cared deeply about the people he served. Working for Judge Davis was a joy because he always made people feel important and capable. He generously showed his appreciation. I’ll always recall a decision we worked on together that went from being the dissenting opinion to becoming the majority view. Judge Davis stood his ground when he knew he was right, and he trusted his team. Judge Davis – Thank you for your contributions you are missed. (Attached photo (1994?) – Judge Davis took Martha (my co-clerk) and I out for a fancy crab cake lunch!

“ I appeared before Judge Davis countless times. He was a gentleman. He cared deeply about the law and allowed you to try your case and to be a lawyer. He was thoughtful and compassionate in his sentencing. He was just a good man. We all lost a quality, decent human being who gave more than he took. Rest in Peace. Gary S. Bernstein

“ I have great memories of my father-in-law, a very distinguished man, who loved his family. He was a dedicated public servant of the highest caliber. Here is a great picture of him with his good friend, the Hon. Robert Bell, on a day Judge Davis was being honored himself. May he rest in peace, but may his memory and legacy live long.
