“ To: The Sumpter Family,
With deepest sympathy on the loss of your love one Beany. May God be of great comfort to you Aunt Mary, Wayne and the rest of the family. Due to circumstances beyond our control we are unable to be with you all during this most difficult time. We know that our cousin, Beany will be greatly missed. We will keep you all in our thoughts and prays.##imported-begin##William and Prinscillia Sumpter III##imported-end##

“ Arthur, you are missed already, more than you will ever know. Unbeknown to you as I think back, you were one of the first people I had the pleasure of getting to know at TPCBC. From there, our friendship and respect for one another grew into a friendship that will never ever be forgotten. Lots of times we were up. Lots of times we were down and sometimes we were just plain old getting on each other nervessmile! As much as I will miss your laughter, GQ style of dress, sales pitch to buy a pocketbook, singing loud and off keysmile, dinning of fine food and never forgetting my birthday- always showing up with something even when I begged you not to, I find peace in the midst of my sorrow knowing that grace saved you and you have made it home.##imported-begin##Tracy Cropper##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Arthur Sumpter. I was reading the paper today and saw the notice of Arthur's passing. I was overcome with grief. Arthur was a former co-worker and friend. After leaving our company he kept in touch on a regular basis. He was always in good spirits and would call to keep us posted on his health. I had not heard from Arthur for many months and wish I had done what he often did, pick up the phone and say "Hey It's Me" how are things going. I will miss his laughter and his encouragement and love for God. He put him first. We often talked about God's goodness and love for us. I will cherish his life and friendship. One day I must also make this journey. I will meet him again at the biggest family reunion ever! When God's calls us to join him in the sky! To the family, my prayers are with you during this time. God Bless and keep you in his care!###imported-begin###Jeanette Wright###imported-end##
