“ I call him Uncle Arthur. I've known him over 20 years and I remember him to be the same as the very day I met him. He was cool, soft spoken not easily riled and respected by his entire family. Especially Judy. That's where I got calling him Uncle Arthur from. I said to myself if his sister calls him Uncle Arthur there's some serious respect there. If he's your brother respect only goes so far but an Uncle is just under your daddy. Question for you Judy, did Uncle Arthur ever find out back in the day that you smoked? Just curious because you put that cigarette out every time he was coming. Respect. Such a beautiful thing! I will truly miss my talks and laughs with my Uncle Arthur. May God bless each family member and give each the strength they need during this time and after.
