

AUDREY M. AIKEN

December 5, 1944 - November 3, 2019

Audrey M. Aiken, age 75, passed away peacefully on Sunday, November 3, 2019, surrounded by her family, in her home in Northeast DC. The daughter of William Pulliam and Beulah Pulliam, she was born December 5, 1944. She was a graduate of Eastern High School in Washington, DC. She went on to dedicate 41 years of her life to her career as an Analyst with the Department of Labor. During her career she acquired her BA degree in English Literature from Trinity College for Women.

She was married to the late Eric Aiken and from this union came four beautiful children Kevin, Kenneth, Kimberly and Kirk

Outside of work, Audrey filled her hours by cultivating her bountiful garden and volunteering with her favorite organization AARP, where she spent many hours working for the Counsel for the Aging and the Driver Safety program. In addition, in 2009, she tutored children within the DC public school system and further demonstrated her passion for volunteering with senior citizens during a volunteer service with the Peace Corps in St. Lucia. Audrey loved to travel, both domestically and internationally. One of her favorite annual trips was to The Philadelphia Flower Show. She was also a valued member of Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, where she served on the church newsletter. As a valued member of her community, in 2016, she was honored as a 'Biped of Brookland'.

She is survived by her three sons, Kevin V. Aiken, Kenneth J. Aiken, and Kirk D. Aiken; her daughter, Kimberly C. Campbell (Kevin Campbell Sr); her grandchildren, Ashley A. Campbell and Kevin B. Campbell Jr.; her sister, Arcelia (Ardi) Martin; her brother, Gene Kearney; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
