“ I was saddened to hear about the passing of Audrey. My sincere condolences to the family. I met Audrey at Advantage International Sports Marketing Lawfirm where we were both employed. We became friends; a friendship that I will always cherish. I met her family and her Soulmate Jerry (A Good Man and Supportive husband). I am Grateful to God for orchestrating Audrey being apart of my life's journey. Audrey was always Pure in Heart, Soul and Spirit, I never saw her angry. Audrey always had a word to uplift and encouragement you to trust in God; "God Always Has a Plan". Rest in Paradise Beautiful Queen. Until we meet again. Love 🤍 🙏 🙏

“ Grateful that God allowed our paths to cross. Ms. Audrey was a great witness for the body of Christ. She faithfully shared God's word in powerful prayers to everyone that requested. I loved her prayers and shared many with others. She will be missed but she leaves a great legacy. May God comfort her family and friends.
Yours in Christ, Lavonne White

Beloved Audrey, I lovingly call you Orange... and so do my siblings and some friends. We love you like our sister and always will. Being sister-friends for over 56 years is irreplaceable. I miss you and I will cherish all of our times together. Thank you for your unwavering love, your sweet greetings, your consistency and your genuine care for others. I know when we go to our next movie outing... we are going to miss you tremendously and lovingly remembering you darling. I may cry but knowing that you are dancing in Heaven for God with dear loved ones, I pray, brings me some solace. My Orange, My Angel, My sister-BFF forever... I love you, TamK
