“ Barbara has been and will be missed at NACHRI. From the moment she arrived she had a special way of reaching out to people. I fondly remember her rescuing me when a CD got stuck in my computer. She was a very uplifting person and we all miss her. My thoughts are with you.##imported-begin##Ellen Schwalenstocker##imported-end##

“ To all Barbara's family,
Please accept my deepest sympathies for the loss of your dear Barbara. I had the pleasure of working with Barbara at NACHRI and discovered what a thoughtful and loving person she was when after a presentation to our staff by a 9-year old cancer survivor and dear friend of mine she asked how she could personally help him with the goal he set to raise enough money to buy a specific piece of equipment for a field doctor in Africa. She was amazing and all individuals she touched will always keep Barbara in their hearts.##imported-begin##Gillian Ray##imported-end##

“ I would like to say to the family that I truly can imagine what you're going through and I know it's not easy. I've learned that time does help the healing process and you WILL make it through.

I was so fortunate to have been a part of Barbara's NACHRI life and I will forever be so grateful and blessed to have known her. I will always remember her as a burst of sunshine. She had a smile that never ended and a hug that just wrapped around you and you could feel the love. I will miss you Barbara and I will never forget you. I Love you and I will miss you today, tomorrow, and forever.##imported-begin##Jenester Cobin##imported-end##

“ *Mr. Washington,
Please know that you have my deepest sympathy and my prayers are with you and your family at this time. My fondest memory of Barbara is spending half a day this past Labor Day at your home, working on a major project with her. Through all the laughing, talking, and movie watching, my project was finished, thanks to Barbara. I will miss such a friendly, loving, and talented person.##imported-begin##Tracey##imported-end##*

“ My prayers go out to the entire for the lost of your beloved wife, daughter, and sister.
Barbara was a dear friend who came into my life as a teacher of not only computers and information, but also about life. Her smile was always sincere and pleasant. Her words were kind, thoughtful, and suggestive to view issues not as they seem to be, but for the possibilities of becoming better resolutions. As a friend, she kept me in line and gave me her heart and I was glad to receive all of these things. O' how I will miss seeing and talking her, but she will always be in my mind and in my heart. This is not good-bye my friend, but so long, until we see each other again.
My the Lord keep each of you,
Love Charles###imported-begin###Charles Murray, Jr.###imported-end##

“ Barbara sat in at the crossway for many staff coming and going in the office. You simply could not pass her office without her calling out a greeting to you. She always paused to see the person rather than simply the work.###imported-begin###Lesley Sedehi###imported-end##
