Belinda was a special kind of friend and I will always remember and appreciate her kindness. The several decades that I knew her we became a lot like family. She would pick me up in her car for church, rehearsal, Bible study and any other Church functions. I've never known her to be late; as a matter of fact we were usually the first ones to arrive and this was in spite of the disabilities she suffered. Rest In Peace my friend. We will miss you greatly.
