“ To: Paige, Phyllis, Tre, Dominique, BJ, Shorty and Lil Man

My thoughts and prayers are extended to each of you during this period of bereavement. It has truly been both a pleasure and a joy having had Ben as apart of my family and my life for more than six decades. Throughout my childhood, teenage and adult years, Ben was always there to support, guide and encourage me in all of my endeavors. I will always remember him as a kind, thoughtful, caring and peaceful young man who would give you the shirt off his back. He was always willing to share his time, talents, and even his treasures with his family and friend.

Ben was truly a multi talented, God gifted and blessed individual with the skills of a carpenter, the cooking acumen of a chef and a beautiful baritone voice. He could "SANG", and he loved singing good old, down home gospel classics. Whether he was singing in a falsetto or acapella, his melodic voice could stir and touch your heart and soul to the inner core.

To the family, take comfort in knowing that during the early morning hours on December 11, 2023, the portals of heaven opened, and God summoned Ben home to eternal rest. One day we will meet again on the other side. RIHP Ben, you earned your crown of jewels...

“ Mr. Ben Dwight Exum, Sr. and I, Lillie Hale met in December 1990 and enjoyed an awesome friendship for over 30 years! We were neighbors for 33 years in Lake Arbor, Mitchellville, Md. Mr. Ben (as we affectionately called him) was a true example of a wonderful and caring neighbor and friend. He was the guardian for the single ladies in our building and was always there, in an instant, to assist us in everything that we needed. He was there to take groceries and packages up the stairs to our condos. Mr. Ben has assisted me to and from the airport, to many times to count. Also, Mr. Ben was always available to assist with any car issues. He was always available just to talk and listen. He loved children and took the time to engage with them. Mr. Ben was a true friend and I will miss him dearly! Enjoy your wings Mr. Ben! The spirits in heaven will welcome you with open arms. Mr. Ben was truly a great and loving person. I leave you with a godly love and will remember you always and forever in my heart ❤️!

! Lillie Hale, your friend, your neighbor, my forever friend!

I would like to extend our prayers and condolences to the Exum Family. Ben was my first cousin. We grew up together in NC. We also worked together for his father, picking cotton and working in tobacco . My husband's brother Dan Smith,Jr was his BEST FRIEND.

He will be sorely missed.

Our prayers 🙏 to the Family 🙏

Mr. Ben and I have been neighbors for 20 years. Mr has impacted my life in so many positive ways and everyone in the Vista community that knew him or crossed paths with. He was very kind and helpful to everyone. Mr Ben always took my trash out, getting the mail out of the box, cleaning snow off my car, taking leaves off my car windshield without being asked. I can go on and on, Mr. Ben had a gigantic heart, god only made one of him. I continued to be active in Mr Ben's life by visiting him at the nursing home 1to 2 times a month. Will missed sitting next to him on couch laughing, joking and taking him a few times for a short rides to the store or play his lottery. I will forever cherish the beautiful memories. I know Mr Ben is in heaven trying to help someone.. RIP, you will be missed

*Your neighbor,
Vivian*
