Dwight was a beautiful soul that was always very supportive and loving 😊. I knew Dwight and his father Benjamin Exum since 1990. We lived in the same Condo community, The Vista's @ Lake Arbor and brought our Condos 1989-1990 consecutively. His father was my downstairs neighbor in the same building. Thus when his son Dwight moved in with his father he was always very considerate and forthcoming. When my sister died in 2002, Dwight was tremendous help in getting her home ready for sale. Dwight was a jack-of-all-trade and was always ready to lend a helping hand. Mr Ben Exum was the same way when it came to being a good neighbor. They always were great neighbors and I loved them both. So, Dwight Rest In Peace. God Speed to you! 💕💕 Neighbor and Friend.
