

Berthel Kemp * Carmichael

November 12, 1918 - January 14, 2007

Berthel Kemp Carmichael, 88, of Washington, D.C. and formerly of Richmond, Virginia, passed away on Sunday, January 14, 2007 at Doctors Community Hospital, Lanham, Maryland.

Mrs. Carmichael was the daughter of Rev. John W. Kemp, Sr. and Hattie E. Kemp. She was preceded in death by her parents and her loving husband, Gonzales Leon Carmichael. She is survived by her daughter, Muriel Carmichael; her sister, Lillian K. Mapp of Richmond, Virginia; her brother, John W. Kemp, Jr. of Lawton, Oklahoma; her brother, Thomas A. Kemp of Richmond, Virginia; and a host of nephews, nieces and friends.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Virginia Union University or the United Negro College Fund.

To send condolences or a lasting tribute to the Carmichael family, please sign the online guestbook below. Click "Sign Guestbook."

Tribute Wall

“ *Berthel Kemp * Carmichael*

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ My sisters are remembering Berthel and Leon today; I'm about to read the Three Billy Goats Gruff to my great-grandchildren, and Berthel had us act it out, some 75 years ago. The little Kilmer children adored them both.

Anne K Hillis - April 21, 2021 at 01:23 PM

“ *May words of sympathy ease your sorrow,
May memories of your loved one give you strength to meet today and tomorrow.
Leonard Pitts
Warren Pitts##imported-begin##Leonard Pitts##imported-end##*

January 17, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ *My deepest sympathy. May all the memories of your loved one flood you with peace and joy. God Bless and keep you all safe.
MUCH LOVE
JULIE##imported-begin##Julie Talbott##imported-end##*

January 17, 2007 at 12:00 AM